Counting Heads 1 David Marusek

Counting Heads is David Marusek's extraordinary launch as an SF novelist: The year is 2134, and the Information Age has given rise to the Boutique Economy in which mass production and mass consumption are rendered obsolete. Life extension therapies have increased the human lifespan by centuries. Loyal mentars (artificial intelligence) and robots do most of society's work.

Counting Heads (Counting Heads, #1) by David Marusek

"David Marusek is an extraordinarily gifted new writer, with unique ears and eyes . . . Brims over with imaginative extrapolations." —Seattle-Post Intelligencer "David Marusek's Counting Heads is the most exciting debut sf novel I've read since Neuromancer. Counting Heads isn't just one of the best first sf novels to come down the pike in some time; it's one of the best novels, period.
